

ASIAN AMERICAN VOICES JOURNAL

Call for Student Submissions

Deadline: April 8, 2022

Submit to: <http://bit.ly/AAV2021f>

Asian American Voices is a collection of literary and visual work created by LaGuardia students to celebrate Asian, Asian American, and Pacific Islander heritages at LaGuardia. We aim to showcase the diverse cultures, religions, histories, festivals, languages, and talents of the Asian American community of our campus as well as student work related to Asian American Studies.

Check out our previous issue: <https://www.laguardia.edu/ahc/>.

See a list and PDFs of submissions from all issues: <https://bit.ly/LG-AAV>.

We Accept

- Critical essays (5 pages max.)
- Short fiction, drama, and creative nonfiction (4 pages max.)
- Recipes (2 pages max.)
- Art: photography, painting, and drawing (up to 3)
- Poems (submit up to 3)
- Interviews and Reflections (3 pages max.)

Guidelines

- Literary submissions should be in Word Doc format.
- Art submissions should be within 100 megabytes (MB)
- Work should be proofread and revised for grammar errors.

For further questions, contact Prof. Anita Baksh at abaksh@lagcc.cuny.edu.

Editorial Team

Anita Baksh (English), Tameka Battle (Health Science), Tuli Chatterji (English), Richa Gupta (Natural Sciences), Malgorzata Marciniak (MEC), Tomonori Nagano (ELA), and Dana Trusso (Humanities)

DARE TO DO MORE