

UNITY
celebrating our shared humanity

Asian American Pacific
Islander Heritage Month

Anime and Philosophy: Discussion of Attack on Titan

Wednesday, May 4, 2022
3:15pm - 4:30pm
Room C103

Speakers: George Tsouris, Adjunct Lecturer, Humanities Department
Kevin Roman, LaGuardia Student Panelist
Andrew McFarland, Associate Professor of Philosophy, Humanities Department
Dana Trusso, Assistant Professor of Philosophy, Humanities Department

This interactive discussion of Attack on Titan will explore the intersection of anime and philosophy. We will show clips from the first episode "To You, in 2000 Years: The Fall of Shiganshina, Part 1."

Register at <https://bit.ly/discussion-aot>

For more information and inquiries, visit <https://www.laguardia.edu/a/c/>

Before coming to campus, view the College's vaccination policy at <https://www.laguardia.edu/campus-safety/students/>. For special accommodations, please contact campuslife@lagcc.cuny.edu at least two weeks prior to an event.