

Building a career one step at a time: from LaGuardia to JET

By Edward Agosto, an Alumnus of LaGuardia Comm. College

Date: Thursday, May 18, 2023

Time: 11:00am-12:00pm (Eastern time)

Place: Zoom (Register at <https://bit.ly/LGJapanSpr23Ed>)

Speaker: Ed Agosto, LaGuardia alumnus (Japanese Option, 2017)

Description of the event: In this online session, Edward Agosto, a LaGuardia alumnus (Liberal Arts Japanese Option, 2017), will discuss his career path from LaGuardia to the JET Programme, to which he was accepted this year. After finishing the Japanese Option at LaGuardia, Ed went on to continue learning Japanese and East Asian culture at Queens College with a minor in Linguistics. After graduating from Queens College, Ed returned to LaGuardia as a Japanese language tutor in the Modern Language Lab. Ed was interested in developing his career in teaching English abroad and was recently accepted to the JET Programme (<https://jetprogramusa.org/>), a prestigious English teaching program funded by the Japanese government. During this talk, Ed will discuss his experience at LaGuardia (as both a student and a tutor), the JET program, and how he prepared his application for the JET program.
