

Community Day

Saturday, June 17, 11 am–6 pm
Free Admission, RSVP Recommended
Museum admission is free all day with art-making activities celebrating themes of peace and uplifting New York City’s Asian American and Pacific Islander (AAPI) creative communities.

Learn more:
noguchi.org/open-call-for-artist-banners/

The Noguchi Museum
9-01 33rd Road (@ Vernon Blvd)
Long Island City, NY 11106

Events Schedule

Drop-in programs
All ages welcome

11 am–5 pm: Gallery Kit
Visitors of all ages are invited to pick up art materials and explore Isamu Noguchi’s work through art-making in the galleries.

2 pm: Public Tour
An introduction to the life and vision of Isamu Noguchi, exploring highlights of the Museum and the Open Call for Artist Banners project.

Hands-on workshop
Ages 18+, registration required

2–4 pm: Design Workshop with June Shin
Join June Shin, winner of the Museum’s 2022 Open Call for Artist Banners, for a design workshop that explores working within constraints and the space between figuration and abstraction.

noguchi